

One Ancient Future

A Global Alliance for Sacred Sites

PRESERVATION + PROTECTION + ACTIVATION

Protecting Earth's Sacred Network

There is an energetic matrix that connects sacred sites around the Earth, known and honored by indigenous wisdom keepers and ancient traditions.

Natural sites, megalithic structures, and prophetic animals all exist on this sacred grid with astrological alignments that carry significance and power. Together, they weave a vital energetic web that allows Earth to regenerate, heal herself, and raise the consciousness of all beings.

The Kogi tribe of Colombia calls this network the invisible line or “Shikwá”. African keepers of the “Great Knowledge” speak of a Golden Nile Meridian connecting the Pyramids of Egypt to the heartlands of white lions in Timbavati, South Africa. All over the world, ancient advanced cultures built structures such as the Giza Pyramids, Stonehenge, the Moai on Rapa Nui, and Puma Punku on the electromagnetic ley lines of the Earth.

For thousands of years, this matrix was alive with a life force energy that nourished our sacred relationship with the Earth. Sacred sites were communal gathering places for ritual and prayer that provided spiritual sustenance to nature, animals, the elements, and the planet. These practices kept humanity connected to its sacredness and in balance with a sustainable, ecological existence.

The Turning Point for Humanity

Today we live in a world where we've lost this connection. The Earth's energetic network has been forgotten and we've abandoned the ancient wisdom of indigenous peoples. Sacred sites have been destroyed or harmed, their spiritual guardians have gone dormant, and their animal guardians are threatened or extinct. We're on a destructive path that threatens the planet and our survival.

Across the globe, the message from indigenous elders is the same:

We have five years to change our current trajectory or we face a future of environmental disaster and human suffering.

Yet there is still hope. A powerful, energized network of sacred sites can help transform the challenges of the present into a future of harmony and peace.

By supporting the activation and preservation of sacred places, we awaken our essential connection with Mother Earth and our own divine nature. With this new awareness, we can innovate solutions that integrate the wisdom of our ancient past with the technologies of the future.

Above all, we can remember what we've forgotten - that we are spiritual beings with limitless potential for creating a new global reality.

Our Vision

We activate and preserve Earth's sacred sites to usher in a new global consciousness of ecological balance and spiritual oneness.

Our Mission

- 1 Establish a global voice of authority for sacred site protection based on indigenous values, scientific research, sustainable practices, and spiritual disciplines.
- 2 Connect and mobilize a knowledge community for learning and applying ancient wisdom as a blueprint for living an ecologically-minded future.
- 3 Support projects that integrate modern science and spiritual knowledge to find solutions for returning us to balance with the Earth.
- 4 Inspire the creation of new sites for nurturing the sacred in our communities and ourselves by providing research, sharing sacred templates, and funding their design and construction.

Who We Are

We are an international alliance of indigenous wisdom councils and legal, cultural, and conservation organizations engaged in sacred site protection and activation spanning cultures and continents.

Supported and guided by Le Ciel Foundation, One Ancient Future (OAF) was founded in 2019 by members of the Sacred Sites & Architecture work group at Le Ciel's Holistic Visions Symposium.

One of the Foundation's primary projects, the Symposium was held in Barcelona, Spain in November 2018. At the event, 144 innovators, influencers and investors from 36 countries gathered to address the planet's most urgent challenges. Guided spiritually by the Twelve and Above Wisdom Council ("The Sacred in Reality"), participants were divided into work groups focused on topics inspired by the United Nations sustainable development goals.

Holistic Visions groups were tasked with finding concrete, innovative solutions to the most urgent challenges facing the world today. Sacred sites are an integral aspect of these interconnected efforts.

Post-Symposium, these dedicated teams have continued to collaborate and weave their solutions for the benefit of the Earth and humanity. They will reconvene in December 2019 to present their accomplishments, share their insights, and further their unique vision for the world.

LE CIEL FOUNDATION

A London-based charity, Le Ciel Foundation is focused on restoring harmony and ecology on a global scale through cultural, spiritual and environmental projects. In addition to the Holistic Visions Symposium, Le Ciel Foundation projects include The Twelve documentary film, the establishment of The Twelve and Above Wisdom Council, the 2017 World Meditation at the U.N. in New York City, and the 2017 Wisdom and Nature Exhibition in London, Paris and New York.

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.”

2019 PROJECTS

These highly developed, interconnected projects focus on reactivating the Earth’s energetic grid and protecting global sacred sites.

1 Casas Espirituales

2019-2025: GLOBAL LOCATIONS

Mamas priests of the Kogi tribe are reactivating 12 sacred natural sites or 'cerros tutelares' around the world to restore the energetic balance of the Earth. Their work includes returning sacred objects to their original locations, recovering sacred sites with ancestral communities, and building spiritual houses to reconnect people with their inner knowledge. According to the mamas, these efforts over the next six years will re-establish planetary equilibrium and help us rebirth humanity.

Each original sacred site has a specific role in the ancestral order as guardians of life, nature, earth, water, air, animals, and the elements. When the mamas conduct ceremonies to reactivate these locations, they do so in accordance with the ancestral cultures, including building spiritual houses with natural elements in alignment with their ancestral vision.

Once constructed, the houses provide a gathering place for local people of all ages to reconnect to their inner knowledge, re-establish their relationship with the cosmos, and find coherence. When they can feel, see, and speak the same frequency as nature, they can give back to the Earth in repayments that become the planet's reserve spiritual energy.

2019 PROJECTS

These highly developed, interconnected projects focus on reactivating the Earth's energetic grid and protecting global sacred sites.

Returning sacred objects also has specific meaning to the Kogis. The "Older Brothers," as they call themselves, believe these objects are not mere ornamentation or decorative pieces but living beings with a relationship to the origin of the Universe. Each has its original location and its spiritual guardians. Giving them back to their original sites is a crucial part of the ancestral reordering.

Together with Le Ciel Foundation, the Kogi are working with museums, antiquities ministries, and private collectors around the world to find and return these objects.

The Kogi have already established the first site (considered the center of the network) in Ecuador with descendents of the indigenous Paltas. In 2019 they plan to reactivate three more sites, including Mt. Etna in Italy and sites in China and Alaska.

2 The Giza Project

MAY 2019-2020: EGYPT

While Egyptologists publicly deny their existence, hidden chambers and shafts exist under the pyramids that are believed to pre-date the Pharaonic dynasties back to 10,000 BC. These unexplored complexes may hold evidence of ancient advanced cultures connected to sacred megalithic structures around the world, altering humanity's current understanding of history. Led by OAF member Rico Paganini, the GIZA expedition seeks to uncover new discoveries and artifacts.

The Giza Project represents the reactivation of one of the world's most ancient sites beneath the pyramids of Egypt. Like Timbavati in South Africa and sacred natural sites recognized by the Kogi, Giza is located on a crossing point of ley line waves and an integral part of the global energetic grid for regenerating and healing the Earth.

There is significant evidence that this unexplored complex was in fact built by ancient advanced cultures with sophisticated construction technologies that far exceeded those of ancient Egypt and which are connected to other megalithic sacred structures around the world. Literary references and sacred knowledge dates the underground structures back to the predynastic Lemurian and Atlantean civilizations more than 12,000 years ago. It is believed these cultures existed from 40,000 - 10,000 BC before disappearing from the Earth.

The Giza Project is based on more than 30 years of scientific and historical research by Paganini, as well as physical expeditions, intensive academic analysis, and spiritual discovery. Paganini began receiving channeled messages from the spiritual being Thoth in 1999. The experiences led him to devote decades to researching and exploring the complexes. He also authored The Giza Legacy detailing his research and founded the EVOL Foundation to support further exploration.

The Giza Project includes a team of scientific, academic, and spiritual experts and encompasses two distinct phases of underground exploration:

PHASE 1: 2019

Subterranean Osiris complex beneath the Giza pyramids

PHASE 2: 2020

Chambers beneath the Sphinx

The proof that these ancient advanced cultures existed would reconfigure humanity's understanding of its own history and evolution. Learning how to apply their technologies could help transform our current path of environmental destruction into one of lasting balance, harmony, and peace.

3 ASSEGAIA Global Conference for the Declaration of Sacred Sites

AUGUST 7-22, 2019:

TIMBAVATI/TSAU WHITE LION HEARTLANDS, SOUTH AFRICA

This international conference formalizes ASSEGAIA, an Alliance for the Sacred Sites of Mother Earth (Gaia), to strengthen a united voice of international authority for sacred site protection.

Led by OAF in partnership with Le Ciel Foundation, The Global White Lion Protection Trust, and EVOL Foundation, this global conference gathers organizations representing indigenous-based expertise and cross-cultural, interdisciplinary knowledge systems (legal, scientific, conservation, cultural, spiritual). Participants will also be joined by leaders from the Global Big Cat Alliance and other leading conservation entities such as the Wilderness Foundation and Wild Trust.

The word ASSEGAIA carries sacred meaning for this critical gathering. It is symbolic of the Sacred Masculine Star Warrior ("Asse" means star in the ancient Bushman language) who offers a shield of protection for the Sacred Feminine of Mother Earth (Gaia).

Convening in the Heartlands of White Lion ancestral territories, the conference will be held during the astrological Lionsgate portal from August 7-22nd. White Lions are prophetic animals revered as stellar beings by African wisdom keepers and indigenous tribes. Near extinction, their struggle for survival reflects the urgent need to address climate change and the desecration of sacred sites at this pivotal time on our planet. The Lionsgate portal provides a spiritual opportunity for humanity to heal its relationship with nature and receive high frequency light energy to activate its conscious awakening.

THE FOUNDING OF A GLOBAL ALLIANCE

As an independent advisory authority, the ASSEGAIA Global Alliance seeks to uphold and mandate the rights of sacred sites globally. Together with its members, ASSEGAIA will make a formal declaration for their protection to:

- 1 Identify sacred sites across the planet needing protection
- 2 Unite a global voice of authority to fast track urgent sacred site status declarations
- 3 Advise international governing and associated bodies on sacred site protection
- 4 Identify key areas of revision for bringing existing legislation into alignment with customary law accepted and endorsed by the Alliance
- 5 Submit urgent applications to relevant governing bodies and associated parties for the protection of sacred sites that have been identified, nominated, sanctioned and validated by the ASSEGAIA Global Alliance
